

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT FOR TEACHER AIDES

Teacher aides have access to a wealth of professional learning and development (PLD) courses to increase your learning and help the ākonga you work with. PLD helps you, the staff in your school and the communities you work with through shared practice. These are funded.*

You will be paid to attend and your course fees will be paid.

This $4 million fund has been negotiated between NZEI Te Riu Roa, the Ministry of Education and NZ Schools Trustees Association.

You can apply for the fund and available PLD options online. The fund is available for all teacher aides at any stage of their career who work across primary, secondary, special schools and kura.

Talk to your principal or supervisor and sign up for this professional development. This fund is limited. Apply now!

Use this QR code to check out the PLD available to you!

